RETURNED FROM CONVENTION

Rev. J. J. Tatum and Rev. C. C. Wheeler of this city, and Mr. J. P. Gillette of Kerten, have returned from Alvarado where they attended the Southwestern Free Baptist Convention. Rev. Tatum called at the Eagle office today and reported that a large delegation was present from different parts of the State, representing not less than ten thousand people. He says the outlook for church work is splendid and the reports encouraging. There is an awakening in all mission interests in the denomination, with an increased financial support in every line of church work.

SACRED MUSICALS

Notwithstanding the very bad evening, quite a large number attended the sacred musicale at the Methodist church, and the excellence of the program more than repaid them for their trouble in braving the weather. Mrs. Annie Byrd Whaling of Houston, was the organist for the occasion, and fully sustained her well known reputation as an organist and musician of exceptional ability. Her organ numbers were thoroughly appreciated by all present.

The quartette was composed of Mrs. Danforth, Miss Sanders, Messrs. Reed and Whittaker, with Miss Mary Shelburne, Miss Florine Batte and Miss Evelyn Sanders as soloists. These are all well known singers of the city and added much to the excellence of the program. The scripture lesson and short talk by the pastor, were enjoyed by the congregation. The program, as published Saturday afternoon, was rendered, with the addition of one quartette.
